ABOUT

Designer Doubt is a British Producer Act much in the same vein as a Major Lazer, Snakehips, Clean Bandit, Rudimental but includes their own lead vocals and some great guest feature appearances including Justin Bieber, Chris Brown, Tyga, Spice Girls, Kyla.

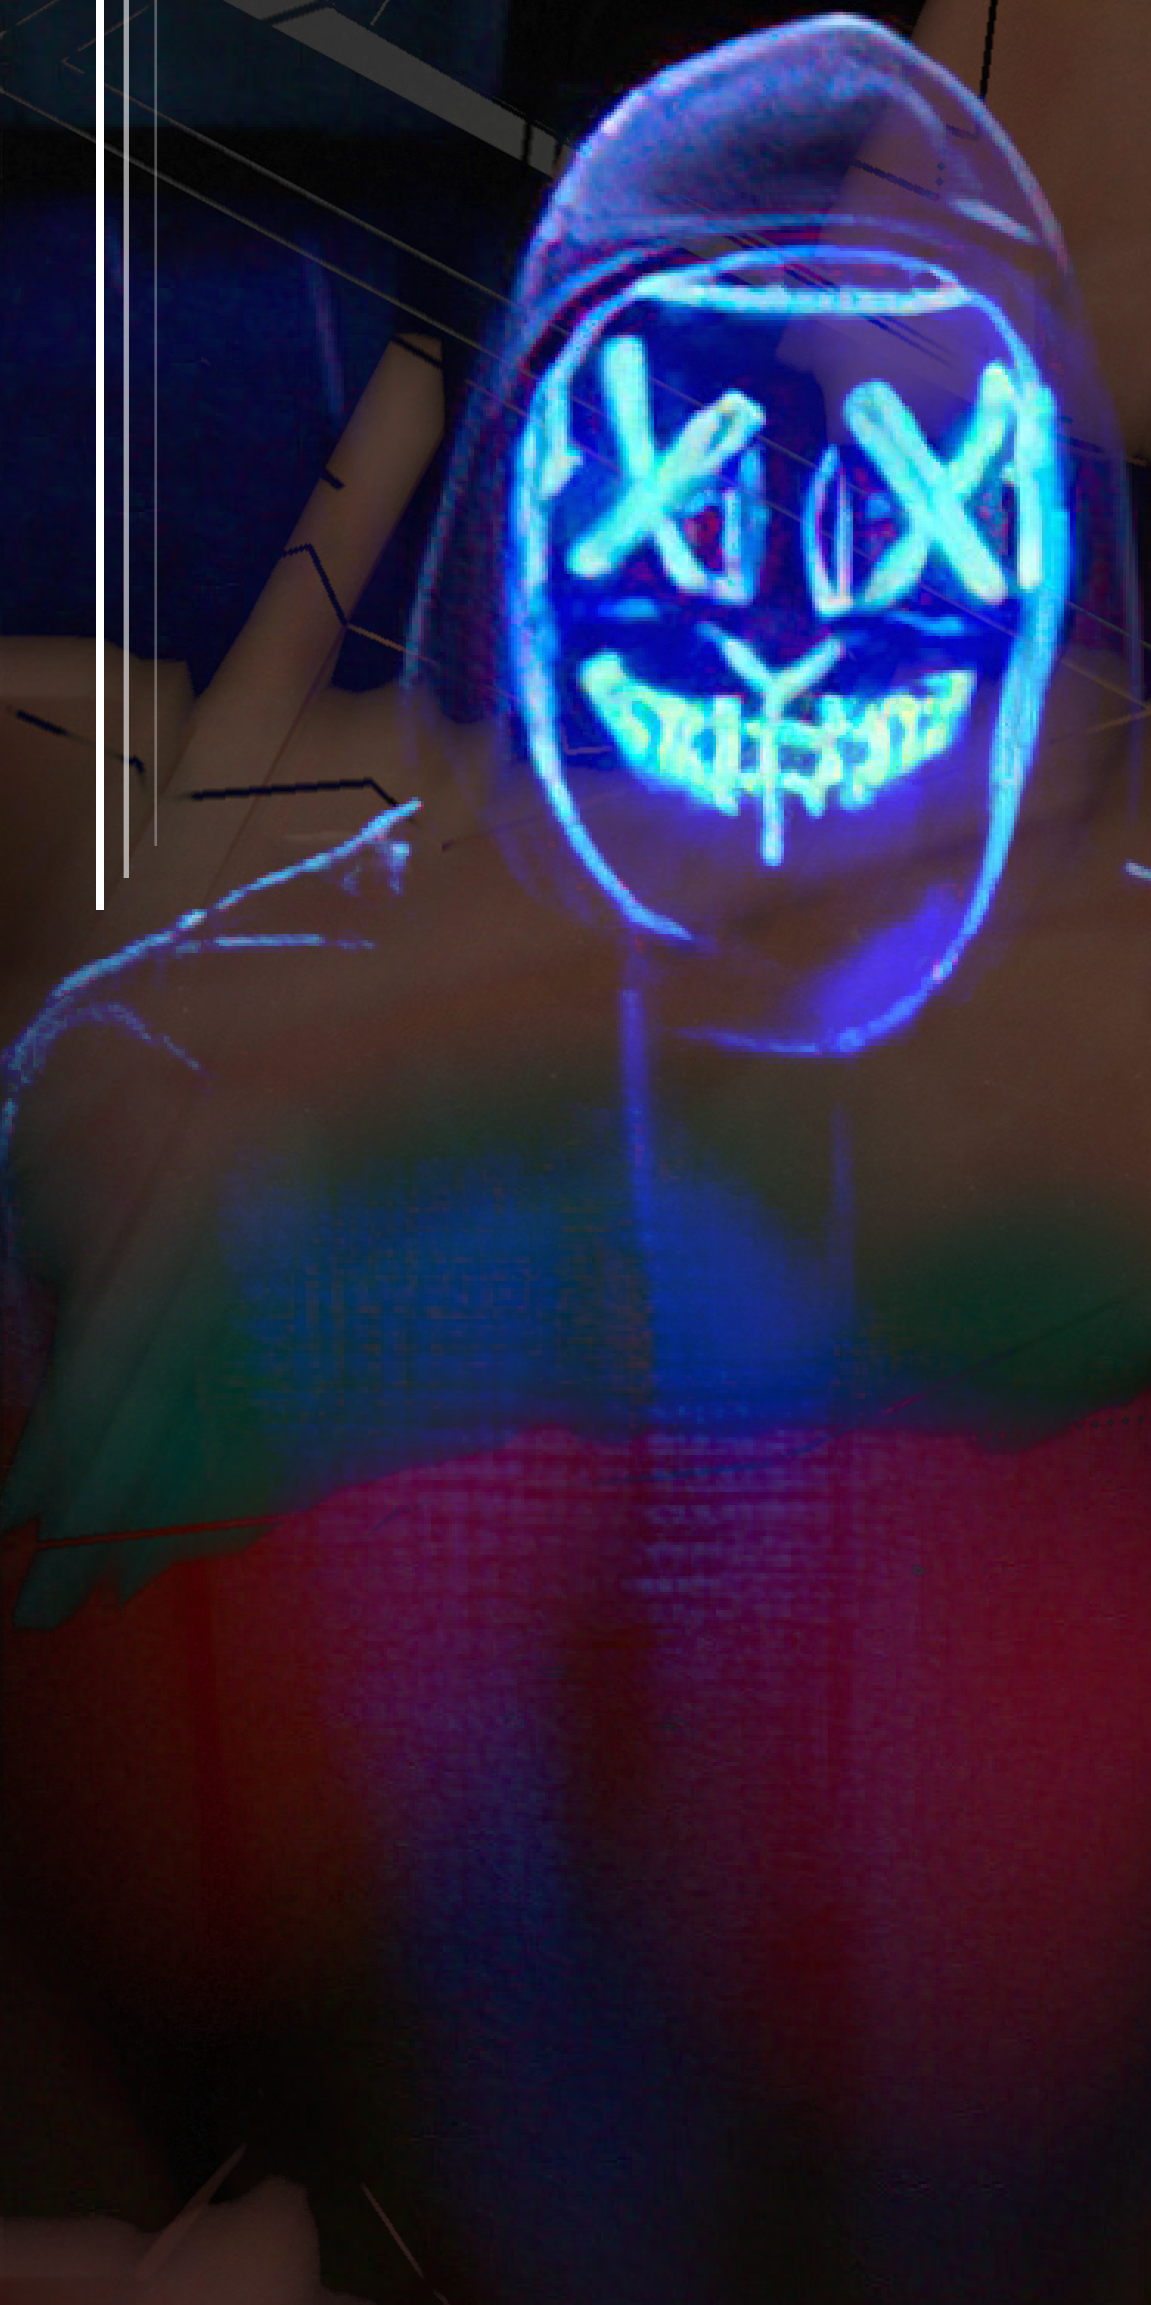

Designer Doubt started by doing commercial House remixes that they would add their own vocals to working with producer acts like Krono and then found themselves in LA producing for Ray J and Chris Brown and featuring on some records stateside.

Designer Doubt have been locked away for the last 2 years creating their own album featuring some of the acts that they met along the way.

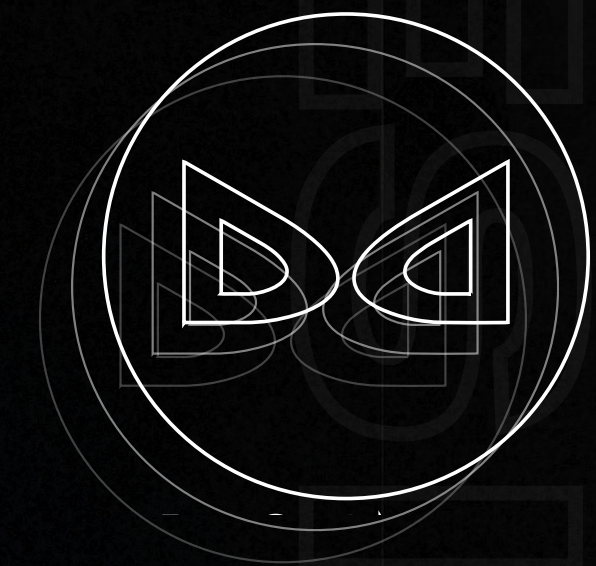

Designer Doubt produce their own CGI Unreal Engine visuals to the singles with the guest artists appearing in the epic visuals, which they would like to take to the stage as a CGI act in the way that Abba has done.

The logo is also a character that will come to life to be added to in various ways for an emoji add on package and NFT sales!
